AGRICULTURAL LENDING SCHOOL

July 19 - 23, 2010 • Kearney, Nebraska

BENEFITS

The Agricultural Lending School is an intensive experience designed for junior- to mid-level managers and lenders. The curriculum includes in-depth, hands-on training in all facets of agricultural lending with emphasis on financial analysis, credit scoring, problem loans, marketing and loan structuring. Students receive personalized instruction and peer interaction. Specific benefits include:

- Overview issues impacting agriculture from a local, national and international perspective
- Achieve an understanding of farm financial statement construction and interrelationships
- Gain hands-on experience with the ratios recommended by the Farm Financial Standards Council
- Experiment with software designed for the testing of "what if" scenarios regarding a loan request
- Learn how to effectively analyze agricultural consumer loan requests for producers of all sizes
- Explore issues related to expansion, loan structuring and problem loans
- Gain new perspectives and knowledge from peers and nationally-respected faculty
- Admission to a future Advanced Agricultural Lending School open only to graduates

ATTENDEE PROFILE

The Agricultural Lending School was developed as an intermediate-level School. Therefore, it offers an intense curriculum designed for individuals who have knowledge of agricultural financing as well as knowledge of ratios, cash flows and balance sheet structure.

Precourse readings, case studies, in-class group work, a final exam and completion of a written loan analysis summary are all elements of this School.

In addition to the above, it is strongly recommended that applicants also meet the following education and experience prerequisites:

- A minimum of one year experience as an agricultural lender or credit analyst
- Completion of a college degree or completion of high school with substantial banking experience
- Successful completion of the following AIB courses:
 - Accounting
 - Analyzing Financial Statements
 - Money & Banking
- In lieu of completion of the above AIB courses, equivalent course work and demonstrated knowledge is acceptable
